3. In late April 1952, Volkspolized had been touring enterprises in the area of Cottbus for some time. One detail started recruiting in the railroad repair shops of the state railroad in Cottbus on 20 April. The detail, which included two VP officers, contected individual young men daily in the repair shop and told them that the rounification of all Germany was only a matter of a very short time and that the Soviet Zone government would then have to send police to "estern Germany and therefore had to recruit new personnel. Although the detail implied that in the event the young men did not polist, they could appear to be either discharged or compulsorily drafted for Aue, the result of the campaign has proved insignificant to date.

The new recruiting campaign, which allegedly was conducted throughout the entire Soviet Zone, was to cover the 1928 through 1-34 classes.
		1		On 1h May, employees of the 1910 class and younger classes of the Berlin regional ratiroad headquarters were invited to sign up for colice service under threat of corisals in the event of noncompliance. They were told that the younger classes would have to serve for three years, while older classes would have to serve with the factory police. The latter would continue to receive their previous salaries and to wear uniforms but would be unarmed and together with armed women of the transportation police would be assigned to esserting and checking trains. Only a few persons volunteered in the area of the regional railroad headquarters. Most employees asked for two days to consider.
